HEERF Funding

The following information is provided per U.S. Department of Education reporting requirements and represents our reporting for these funds for the quarter ended December 31, 2021.

1. Duke University (the University) acknowledges that it has signed and returned to the U.S. Department of Education the Certification and Agreement and has used the applicable amount of funds designated under Section 314 (a)(1) of the Coronavirus Response and Relief Supplemental Appropriations Act (CRRSAA) and Section 2003(a)(1) of the American Rescue Plan (ARP) to provide Emergency Financial Aid Grants to Students.

2. The University was awarded $4,694,243 under Section 314(a)(1) of CRSSAA, of which $3,357,011 is to be provided to make Emergency Financial Aid Grants. Additionally, the University was awarded $17,487,008 under Section 2003(a)(1) of the ARP, of which $8,743,505 is to be provided to make Emergency Financial Aid Grants.

3. For the quarter ended December 31, 2021, $4,995,750 was distributed to Duke University students under Section 2003(a)(1) of the ARP.

4. Approximately 7,651 students were estimated to have Title IV eligibility under Section 484 in Title IV of the Higher Education Act of 1965.

5. For the quarter ended December 31, 2021, 2,444 Duke University students received Emergency Financial aid grant distributions under Section 2003(a)(1) of the ARP.

6. For the quarter ended December 31, 2021, undergraduate students whose financial circumstances would render them eligible to receive a Pell Grant received an Emergency Financial Aid grant in the amount of $3,000. Additionally, students whose financial circumstances would not render them eligible to receive a Pell Grant, but with EFC’s of $15,000 or less received an Emergency Financial Aid grant in the amount of $1,750.

7. Emails were sent to enrolled undergraduate and graduate students on November 16, 2021 providing details of the HEERF III grants and directing them to the Office of Undergraduate Financial Support’s HEERF website for instructions to receive funding. Instructions, answers to frequently asked questions, and eligibility requirements were included on the website. Eligible students received regular email reminders regarding the availability of emergency grants and the steps required to receive funding.