HEERF II – Coronavirus Response and Relief Supplemental Appropriations Act

The following information is provided per U.S. Department of Education reporting requirements and represents our reporting for these funds for the quarter ended June 30, 2021.

1. Duke University acknowledges that it has signed and returned to the U.S. Department of Education the Certification and Agreement and has used the applicable amount of funds designated under Section 314 (a)(1) of the Coronavirus Response and Relief Supplemental Appropriations Act (CRRSAA) program to provide Emergency Financial Aid Grants to Students.

2. Duke University received $4,694,243 from the Department pursuant to the institution’s Certification and Agreement, of which $3,357,011 was designated for Emergency Financial Aid Grants to Students under the CRRSAA program.

3. As of June 30, 2021, $3,822,000 in Emergency Financial Aid Grants has been distributed to students under the CRRSAA program.

4. Approximately 7,679 students were estimated to have Title IV eligibility under Section 484 in Title IV of the Higher Education Act of 1965.

5. The total number of students who have received an Emergency Financial Aid Grant to students under the CRRSAA program as of June 30, 2021 is 3,822.

6. Duke distributed grants in the amount of $1,000 to each Title IV aid-eligible student with an expected family contribution (EFC) of $15,000 or less, as documented by a FAFSA submission.

7. Emails were sent to enrolled undergraduate and graduate students on April 5, 2021 providing details of the HEERF II grants and directing them to Duke’s HEERF II website for instructions to receive funding. Instructions, answers to frequently asked questions, and eligibility requirements were included on the University website. Eligible students received regular email reminders regarding the availability of emergency grants and the steps required to receive funding.
