HEERF Funding

The following information is provided per U.S. Department of Education reporting requirements and represents our reporting for these funds for the quarter ended September 30, 2021.

1. Duke University (the University) acknowledges that it has signed and returned to the U.S. Department of Education the Certification and Agreement and has used the applicable amount of funds designated under Section 314 (a)(1) of the Coronavirus Response and Relief Supplemental Appropriations Act (CRRSAA) and Section 2003(a)(1) of the American Rescue Plan to provide Emergency Financial Aid Grants to Students.

2. The University was awarded $4,694,243 under Section 314(a)(1) of CRSSAA, of which $3,357,011 is to be provided to make Emergency Financial Aid Grants. Additionally, the University was awarded $17,487,008 under Section 2003(a)(1) of the ARP, of which $8,743,505 is to be provided to make Emergency Financial Aid Grants.

3. For the quarter ended September 30, 2021, there were no distributions to Duke University students under Section 314(a)(1) of the CRRSAA or Section 2003(a)(1) of the ARP.

4. Approximately 7,292 students were estimated to have Title IV eligibility under Section 484 in Title IV of the Higher Education Act of 1965.

5. For the quarter ended September 30, 2021, there were no Emergency Financial aid grant distributions to Duke University students under Section 314(a)(1) of the CRRSAA or Section 2003(a)(1) of the ARP.

6. Duke anticipates issuing student relief funds in the form of block grants to domestic students in the fall 2021 semester. The University plans to tier grant payments to prioritize undergraduates with the highest levels of financial need by providing larger payments to those whose financial circumstances would render them eligible to receive a federal Pell grant. Smaller grant amounts will be issued to other undergraduate, graduate, and professional students with high financial need as determined by their expected family contribution on the aid application.

7. The University anticipates notifying, via email, enrolled undergraduate and graduate students of their ability to apply for HEERF II and III grants in the fall 2021 semester. The University will also update the Keep Learning site with instructions, answers to frequently asked questions, and eligibility requirements.
